

Victims and Survivors of Crime Week - November 22 to 29, 2020

Victims and survivors of traumatic experiences, but resilience to move beyond create positive change.

Victims and Survivors of raising awareness about survivors of crime and the laws in place to help them

Throughout Canada, people work with victims every day. Service justice professionals give meaningful support to their families as they justice system.

crime have been through many use their personal their victimization and to Crime Week is about issues facing victims and services, programs and and their families.

countless dedicated and survivors of crime providers and criminal information and victims and survivors and navigate the criminal

Services for victims and survivors of crime are available right here in Fort MacLeod & Area. Call: Ranchlands Victim Services Main Office @ 403-627-6040.

For more information on Victims and Survivors of Crime Week, visit www.victimswweek.gc.ca

Victims and survivors of crime have been through traumatic experiences, but many use their personal resilience to move beyond their victimization and to create positive change.

Victims and Survivors of Crime Week is about raising awareness about issues facing victims and survivors of crime and the services, programs and laws in place to help them and their families.

Throughout Canada, countless dedicated people work with victims and survivors of crime every day. Service providers and criminal justice professionals give information and meaningful support to victims and survivors and their families as they navigate the criminal justice system.

Services for victims and survivors of crime are available right here in Fort MacLeod & Area. Call: Ranchlands Victim Services Main Office @ 403-627-6040.

For more information on Victims and Survivors of Crime Week, visit www.victimswweek.gc.ca